

The element Selector

The element selector selects elements based on the element name.

You can select all  elements on a page like this (in this case, all  elements will be center-aligned, with a red text color):

Example

```
p { text-align: center;
  color: red;
}
```